SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

Our Freshman year was a period of orientation to the complexities of high school routine and of the building. From the time of our entrance into the high school in September, 1946, until the following spring, we never ceased to admire and wonder at the accomplishments and maturity of the older students. However, when we had all enjoyed a successful Freshman dance, we were assured that someday we, too, would be all-important upper classmen. Our class officers for the Freshman year were president, Edward Purdy; vice-president, George Bellinger; secretary, Janet Higgins; and treasurer, Betty Seck.

During our Sophomore year, it was proved that many of our classmates would be leaders in high school activities. Sophomores were active in all school functions from clubs to athletics. This was preparation for the two subsequent years in which we were to be the officers and star athletes of the school. Our class officers, who were George Bellinger, president; Myrna Kamins, vice-president; Dot Serson, secretary; and Jeanne Brelle, treasurer; planned a delightful Sophomore Hop which we all enjoyed.

Our Junior class officers, president, Charles Mazur; vice-president, Donald Winter; secretary, Chester Franklin; and treasurer, Barbara Jean Nelson, guided us through a happy and busy year. We ordered our class rings early and were thrilled, when they arrived, to display them as the sign of our growing importance in the school. In the second half of the year we presented our play, "Applesauce," to a large and appreciative audience. The great financial success of the play enabled us to enjoy a wonderful Junior-Senior Reception which carried out the theme of the musical comedy, "The Red Mill."

Our Senior year has been very busy and enjoyable. We were overwhelmed in the fall with the outstanding success of our football team which was defeated only in the last game of a nine game schedule. In November, every member of the class cooperated in helping Mrs. Aszman and the cast produce an outstanding play, "Green Stockings." Soon after the Christmas recess the "Allegarooter" Staff was named and they started to work enthusiastically to produce this book. Naturally, the Junior-Senior Reception was a high spot in May. On June 4 the Baccalaureate Service was held in the auditorium and we emerged as graduates of Rahway High School, Class of 1950, after Commencement Exercises on June 6.

THE CLASS OF 1950

JUNIOR CLASS

In September, 1947, the members of the Freshman class entered the halls of Rahway High School with the expectation of immediately being transformed into men and women. What a rude awakening we had! However, we began to feel a part of high school when our class was organized and our officers were elected. John Cox was elected president; Radley Squier, vice-president; Pat Acken, secretary; Ann Archer, treasurer; Miss Lyon and Mr. Kemp were the advisers. We were represented on the Student Council by Dick Cunningham and Larry Ivan.

The big event of our first year was the Freshman Dance. We worked together enthusiastically and enjoyed one of the best of all Freshman dances.

Our Sophomore year started with even more eagerness, and we were marked as one of the more "up and coming" classes. Our officers were James Polacco, president; Cliff Ward, vice-president; Joan Ingersoll, secretary; and Ruth Kochy, treasurer, under the supervision of Miss McClellan and Mr. Dixon. Working with our usual enthusiasm, we early planned for our annual Sophomore Dance, which was to be held in April.

Now we are Juniors. Our officers are Joseph Rucci, president; Fred Headley, vice-president; Ann Archer, secretary; and Joan Ingersoll, treasurer. Miss Wise and Mr. Perrine are our advisers.

There were many activities this year. We selected and purchased our rings. Then we held the annual Football Dance to honor our athletes. Under Mrs. Aszman's direction the Junior class play, "Tommy," was presented to an enthusiastic audience.

Every Junior looks forward to the outstanding social event of the year, the Junior-Senior Reception. The committees were selected early in April.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

Since we were Freshmen, approximately two hundred strong, we have contributed much school spirit by entering wholeheartedly into the various activities offered by the school. Those in which Sophomores are outstanding are Debating, Band, Sports, Modern Dance, and Cheerleading.

The Freshman dance was a grand success due to the fine cooperation of all. The officers of the Freshman class, chosen during September 1948, were Fred Durand, president; Bill Marsh, vice-president; Betsey Edwards, secretary; and Richard Bowin, treasurer.

The new students who joined our class caught the friendly spirit present here and soon felt at home. We are looking forward to becoming upper classmen next year. A wonderful spirit of cooperation and endeavor prevails in our class which we hope will last all through our school years together and after graduation.

The Sophomore Dance, held on April 14, was well attended and enjoyed by all. We wish to thank Miss McClellan and Mr. Dixon for their help in advising us.

The class officers are Richard Boivin, president; Robert Eadie, vice-president; and Connie Goldsworthy, secretary-treasurer. The Student Council representatives are June Scott, Bill Marsh, Betsey Edwards, and Pat Boresch.

FRESHMAN CLASS

On September seventh of this year we became known as the Freshman class. Real Freshmen! We had been looking forward to this goal since we started school. Prior to this we were divided—part at Grover Cleveland School, St. Mary's, and Rahway High School. Those who entered here as Sub-freshmen had the usual feelings of trepidation, awe and bewilderment which accompany any new adventure. However, we soon became acclimated to our surroundings, thanks to our eighth grade advisers, Miss Morris and Mr. Kuhlman.

Both as individuals and a class we have achieved a degree of success this year. Scholastically we have had the greatest number of students on the high honor roll. We have had active participation in clubs and in sharing the community projects of our school. In sports our boys have had successful football, basketball, and baseball seasons. Our social high light of the year was our Freshman Dance.

Our class of two hundred and twenty-two members was represented by the following officers: president, Katherine Gray; vice-president, Allen Weygand; secretary, Maureen Sauers; treasurer, Arthur Taylor; student council representatives, Pat Martin and Merle Roarke. Our advisers were Miss Lyon and Mr. Kemp.

We are looking forward to making the class of '53 one of the outstanding groups ever to have called Rahway High their alma mater.

EIGHTH GRADE

The year 1949 was a year some 130 eighth grade pupils will never forget. It was our first step on the long ladder of high school life and, needless to say, it left us a bit dizzy. The first few days of school saw a puzzled group of students wandering about the building looking for their prospective classes. After a few days, however, things settled down and we were arranged alphabetically for all our classes.

During the second week of school, we elected officers and Student Council representatives which are as follows: president, Thurman Latherow; vice-president, George Manaker; secretary, Jane O'Connor; treasurer, Arlene Laurent; Student Council representatives, Joe Gassaway and Arlene Minch. Next, we took part in the activities of the cafeteria, electing host, hostess, and table representatives.

On February 15, we held our first assembly of the year. A motion picture was shown and the class officers spoke on the life of George Washington. The social event of the year came on March 10, in the form of our eighth grade party. Everyone had a rollicking good time that will not be forgotten for a long, long, while.

Everyone, faculty and students, was really helpful in getting us into the swing of things. At least next year we won't have to dread being just little uninformed Freshmen. We, the eighth grade class, wish to express our sincere appreciation to everyone in High School for having extended such a warm welcome to us. It has been a wonderful experience to have had the opportunity to get acquainted with pupils from other schools.

Our advisers were Miss Morris and Mr. Burns.

SPORTS

Twirlers

This year the Twirlers of Rahway High School added a spot of glamour to our football games. They made a pretty picture in their sparkling white uniforms marching across the field of battle. During the year they presented us with many new, intriguing, and difficult routines. The girls also participated in the annual band concert in February. They marched in the city's Halloween parade and in the Memorial Day parade.

Myrna Kamins and Mildred Nadler proved to be very capable co-captains. Other members of the squad this year were Joyce Donnelly, Laurel La Coss, Lucille Gagnon, Etta Cipolletti, Kathleen Glennon, Margaret Gates, Jane Kirtley, Betty Nepp, Doris Fraser, and Martha Landrie. Miss Elizabeth McManus is the adviser of the group.

Cheerleaders

The Cheerleaders, with captain, Dot Bacek, and under faculty guidance of Thorton Monez, not only had one of their most successful years, but also cheered one of our most successful teams to victory. The year was started right when the ten girls appeared in brand new, pert uniforms of red corduroy. This year the girls had the privilege of being invited to the annual Side Liners' Dinner.

Besides cheering at all the football and basketball games, they also cheered at two pep rallies and practically all of the assemblies.

Other members of the squad include: Shirley Smith, Joan Reider, Carol Martin, Kathleen Schaefer, Deborah Millman, Gertrude Van Note, Eileen Kelly, Temple Ann Scafati, and Joan Brundage.

FOOTBALL

The co-captains of the football team this year were Stanley Ziobro and James Falesky. The Rahway team earned a brilliant record for 1949 with only one defeat in nine contests. The first game saw the Rahway squad triumph over Dover by a score of 27-0, followed by a victory over Highland Park, the final tally being 20-0. Gaining momentum, the squad crushed Linden by the overwhelming score of 44-0. Cranford was duly defeated 35-0. Thus far the Rahway eleven had not been scored against. Roselle Park, however, scored twelve points in the next game; but Rahway had a total of 55, making the greatest tally of the season. Scotch Plains was defeated 27-6, followed by a victory over Summit, the final score standing at 26-6. Roselle was beaten 39-6 the following week. Rahway was finally defeated by Regional on Thanksgiving Day 7-27, but the squad fought valiantly up to the final whistle. The team, however, would probably not have enjoyed such success without the able coaching and direction of Mr. Earl Hoagland, with his assistants, Mr. Berger and Mr. Burns.

The letter men of 1949 were as follows: Michael Varadi, John Sisto, Cliff Ward, Herbert Castor, Patsy Abate, Lynn Rutter, James Falesky, George Lechner, Tony Cherubino, Robert Nolan, Joe Brusco, Albert Smith, George Lewis, James Polacco, Robert Ray, Chester Franklin, William Schmidt, Charles Amasio, Stanley Ziobro, and Nate Smith.

To complete the season in good Rahway tradition, the Rahway football team went on to tie with Clifford Scott for the Group 2 State Championship.

BASKETBALL

This was probably one of the finest seasons of basketball ever enjoyed by the Rahway High School basketball team. The squad, as a whole, earned a great deal of admiration from the High School this year; but the success of the season is due a great deal to the able coaching of Mr. Earl Walter and his worthy assistant, Mr. John Kuhlman.

The first game of the year saw the Rahway squad upset the powerful team from Regional by a score of 38-30. In the following three contests Rahway was victorious every time, defeating Linden, 68-36; Cranford, 58-41; and Saint Peter's, 44-37. For the next three games the squad was not quite so successful, but the scores were very close: Linden, 51-54; Plainfield, 40-41; and Thomas Jefferson, 42-43. The team came back, however, to show their prowess by defeating the Alumni, 49-36. In the return contest with Plainfield, the Rahway basketball squad vindicated itself for the first defeat by downing the Plainfield five, 58-47. Highland Park was subsequently defeated, 44-40, but the following contest was yielded to Hillside, 38-44. The Rahway squad was victorious over Cranford and Edison, but bowed to Roselle Park and Regional in the next two contests. The formal season ended with Rahway triumphing over St. Peter's by a score of 42-38. In the county tournaments Rahway defeated Scotch Plains, 55-40, but bowed to Jefferson. The following two games in the state tournaments saw Rahway defeat Newark Arts and Cranford. The team lost the final game to the undefeated Millburn team by the close score of 58-61.

The lettermen of the basketball season were as follows: Mazur, Clinton, Hansen, Charles Amasio, Nate Smith, Sisto, Koch, Grewe, and Farber. Also receiving a letter as the manager of the team was Thomas Schimmel.

BASEBALL

The co-captains of the 1949 baseball team were Norman Davis and Harry Reiser. Although the Rahway baseball squad had not reached the preeminence of the football team, its record is most admirable. From a total of eighteen games, the team enjoyed twelve victories. Coach Earl Hoagland, assisted by Robert Berger, turned out a fine team this year and guided the baseball squad through a very successful season.

The Rahway team began the year in fine fashion by winning the first five home games, the most impressive victory being the defeat of Edison by a score of 16-0. The other four starting games stood as follows: Cranford, 4-0; Highland Park, 5-4; Regional, 5-3; and Dunellen, 7-1. At the sixth game the Rahway baseball squad suffered its first setback at the hands of Linden, 0-2. The squad came back, however, to defeat Metuchen and Saint Patrick's. In spite of losing the following game to Saint Mary's by a score of 3-4, the team defeated one of Rahway's traditional rivals, Roselle, by a tally of 5-1. Defeats were subsequently suffered at the hands of Union, Westfield, and Hillside. In the interim, however, the squad triumphed over Holy Trinity, Jefferson, and Plainfield.

The lettermen of the baseball team of 1949 were as follows: Norman Davis, Harry Reiser, John Bodnar, Roger Hone, William Grahill, Joseph DaPrille, Stanley Ziobro, Jack Sisto, Richard Ruddy, Nate Smith, George Lewis, Charles Amasio, and Charles Hill.

The climax of the season was Rahway's postseason victory over Roselle Park, 4-3, thus winning the Group 2 State Championship.

Track

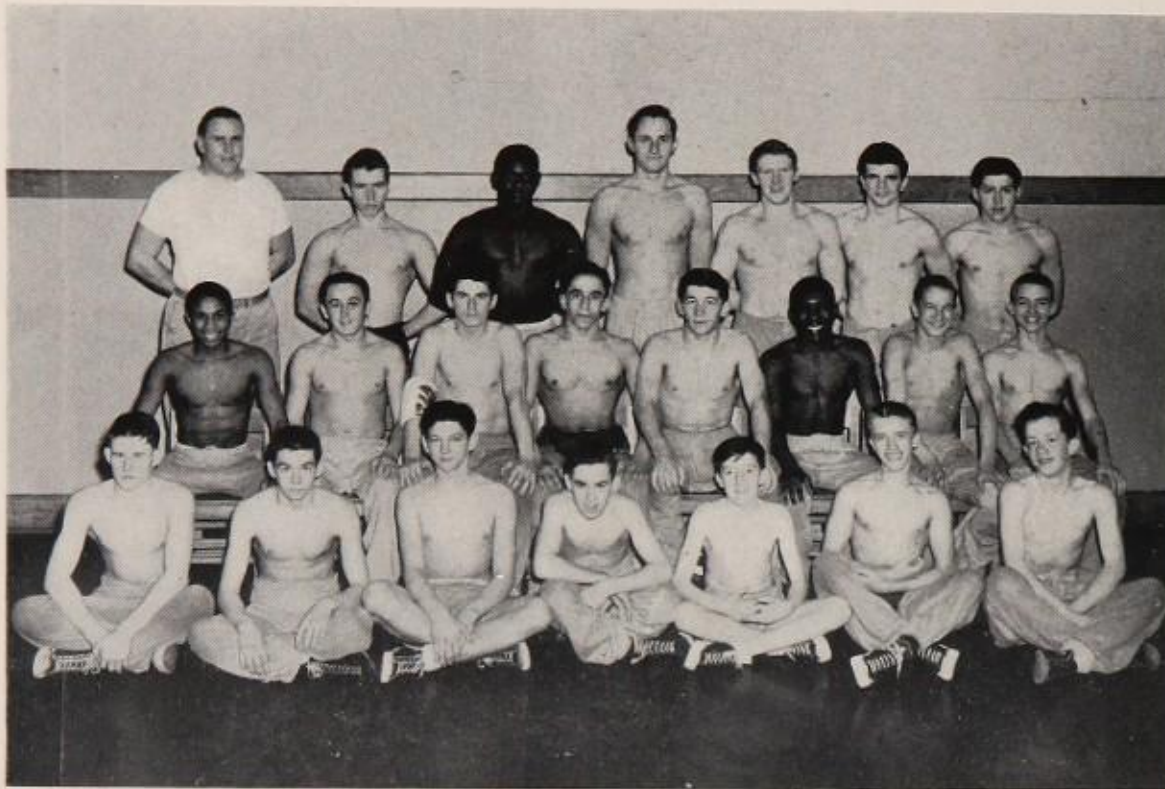

The team, as a whole, experienced a very successful year in contrast to the not so successful season of the preceding year. George Robbins won first place in the "half-mile" Group 2 State Meet, Robert Simon tying for first place in the high jump. The most note-worthy members of the squad were George Robbins, James Pettit, Robert Simon, and James Campbell. The most outstanding contests of the year were the Long Branch Meet and the Medley Relay, in which the track squad, as a group, took third place.

George Robbins and Robert Simon were co-captains and Mr. Fred Schmidt, the coach.

Cross Country

With only one letterman left from last year, Mr. Schmidt's squad of fleet marathon runners had little hope for a championship year. The veteran holdover was Loren Zimmerman who carried the torch for Rahway along with co-captains, Jimmy Campbell and Larry Ryan. The team was victor over Cranford, but lost to stronger teams; such as Jefferson, Edison, and Regional. It took a lot of time and hard work to whip the boys into shape and although the year was not a success on the books, it was successful to those who were in there working hard towards victory. This year's lettermen were Loren Zimmerman, Ken Watson, Larry Ryan, Bob Eadie, and Jim Campbell. Alvah Clark was the team manager.

Wrestling

Wrestling at Rahway High began its fourth season this year. Although Coach Berger's squad was fairly large, there were only five lettermen back, and the team was hampered by a few injuries during the season. Much of the material was green, and a lot of hard work and training was needed to whip the boys into shape. There were ten matches this season, and the Rahway men took four of them and dropped six. We won victories over Regional, Perth Amboy, Union, and Carteret, while we were outpointed by St. Benedict's Prep, Roselle Park, Plainfield, Somerville, Bound Brook, and Thomas Jefferson.

The captain of this year's team is Stanley Ziobro.

Tennis

As this book goes to press, the Tennis team has a tentative schedule of twelve games set up for the spring season of 1950. Although the team is young and inexperienced, the adviser, Mr. Edward Perrine, is preparing for a successful season. Last year's team was unable to receive a full report since the team had not organized when the yearbook was printed. They deserve praise for their score of five games won and six games lost. The team consisted of Richard Cunningham, Charles Golodner, Richard Ohweiler, Fred Roche, Dudley Painter, and Howard Peskoe.

Girls' Athletics

Every girl in Rahway High takes part in this activity five days a week unless excused for physical disability. Few absent themselves from class and a large portion of the girls take part in tournaments and Sports' Days.

On a Sports' Day about one hundred girls have the opportunity to meet girls from other schools. A social period during which the girls learn about the programs of other schools follows the competitive games.

Round robins are held for the three major sports: basketball, volleyball, and softball. Winning teams from each of the seven gym classes play to determine a grand winner. Each member of the winning team receives a varsity letter.

Many activities fill the periods between the seasons of the three major sports. The girls all enjoy square and tap dancing, marching, first aid, archery, tennis, golf, tumbling, stunts, light apparatus work, and exercises. The program is so varied that each girl may find some activity which she enjoys.

Miss Elysia Philipp is the girls' adviser.

Modern Dance Group

The Modern Dance Group has always had to work with many handicaps, due to the numerous other Girls' Activities. Dancing requires much time and a good sized space which are not always readily available. The group that turned out for the club was so enormous that various classes are held: the beginner group meets on Monday and Friday; the advanced group, on Tuesday and Thursday; and many girls practice in their free periods.

A dance assembly program was presented in April, the first time the group presented an entire program for their fellow students. Exchange programs were held with other schools to broaden each member's knowledge of the dance.

This year the group has seriously tried to interpret both the classics and popular music. Due to the amount of work on the part of everyone, the group has shown much improvement. Each girl claims she enjoys dancing even though her feet do get dirty.

The adviser is Miss Elizabeth McManus.

Election to membership in the National Honor Society is the highest honor attainable by the Rahway High School students. Twenty Juniors and Seniors were made members of the society this year. George A. Sherwood as adviser helped the group to carry on a very successful year.

Among the many services and activities performed by the society were sponsoring of many important assemblies, staffing the information desk, participation in the National Honor Society Achievement Test, and providing ushers and guides for many functions. They also enjoyed many social events including a celebration of the fifteenth birthday of the Rahway chapter and the annual picnic.

In all of these activities and in those of the individual members, the four requirements for membership, Scholarship, Leadership, Service, and Character, have been demonstrated.

Student Council

President	Stanley Ziobro
Vice-president	Anthony Cherubino
Secretary	Kathleen Schaefer
Treasurer	Sherley Loveland

The Student Council gives the student body of the High School the opportunity to participate in the government of Rahway High. The Student Council has sponsored the following: Student Organization tickets; buses for the band, twirlers and cheerleaders; and special buses to games for students. Other accomplishments include two Award Days, a Sub-freshman Day, a successful Career Day and several Pep Rallies. A special assembly program featured a radio and television artist. The Council was responsible for the numerous Christmas decorations and Thanksgiving baskets. Rahway High School was represented by the Student Council in Princeton at a meeting of the New Jersey Association of High School Councils. The advisers are Miss Nancy Sinclair and Mr. Jason Kemp.

Orchestra

A score of student violinists and several members from the band, constitute our school orchestra. This is a group that has been rising in popularity for the past several years. The orchestra has been called upon to perform several times at community affairs.

Under the direction of Mr. Ray Cleveland, this well balanced musical group, brings outstanding performances at the Senior and Junior plays, the Spring Festival and Commencement.

Next year the orchestra should increase in number, for there are many potentially good musicians coming from the grade schools. With the addition of several new brass and string instruments, the orchestra should have a successful season.

Band

President Val Meinzer
Treasurer Nancy Husbands

The band opened its official season with an increased enrollment numbering fifty. With each member outfitted in a new uniform, and with the aid of many new instruments, the band presented commendable performances between the halves at the annual football games. The band presented another spectacular showing at the Hallowe'en parade and won second prize in the band contest.

Rahway High School was further honored when Chic Roche, Radley Squier, and Arthur Taylor were selected for membership in the New Jersey All-State Band. On February ninth, the band presented its second annual concert which was a great success of the year. The band looks forward to many more community activities this year; such as, the Memorial and Flag Day parades. Mr. Ray Cleveland directed the band this year.

Chorus

The High School Chorus, consisting of more than 180 voices, enjoyed a most successful year under the able direction of Mr. Thornton Monez. The objective of the chorus is to acquaint the students of Rahway High School with the best in choral music. The most noteworthy performances of the chorus were the Christmas program and the Spring Festival in May. A number of members found time to attend the operas "Aida" and "Carmen" at the Metropolitan Opera House. The high school chorus was blessed with many fine voices this season, with a number of students trying out for the All-State Chorus. Harriet Katzman was the accompanist this year.

The Annual Christmas Concert

A musical highlight of the year was the annual Christmas Concert presented by the Rahway High School Chorus, under the direction of Mr. Thornton Monez. The program included a fine rendition of traditional, modern, and unusual arrangements of Christmas carols. This year's performance attracted a capacity gathering adding to its success.

Chemistry Club

President Hilliard Farber
 Vice-president Daniel Koch
 Secretary-Treasurer Betty Schulze

Not long ago we saw a motley crew of Seniors entering that third floor room known as the Chemistry Laboratory. These budding young scientists were about to commit themselves to that organization in research, the Chemistry Club. After fighting their way through the odor of gas and burnt sulphur, they seated themselves on the throne of science and held an election.

The purpose of the club is to further an interest in chemistry and to understand the latest developments in the research field. Mr. Schmidt is the adviser.

Biology Club

President Fred Wagner
 Vice-president Phillip Duffy
 Secretary Pat O'Donnell
 Treasurer Marilyn Stacy
 Adviser, Lee Yothers

The Biology Club is limited to Sophomores who wish to continue the units studied in class. There are only twenty-five members so that each one may take an active part in the monthly meetings. Since many apply for membership, those whose names are pulled out of a hat are eligible to join. An equal number of boys and girls are selected.

Forums, quizzes, spelling bees, informal discussions, and demonstrations are held at the regular meetings. Several social meetings are held each year, the biggest of which is the annual joint meeting with the Chemistry Club.

Freshman Science Club

President Richard Mundrane
Treasurer Rosemarie Galaida

The Freshman Science Club holds monthly meetings in Room 304. The members of the club plan their own programs, which consist mainly of experiments in science, discussions, and quizzes. This spring the entire club took a trip with the money they collected as dues.

The purpose of the club is to further interest in general science and put it to practical use. Miss Adellma Lyon is the club adviser.

Chefs' Club

President Alfred Carlson
Secretary Robert Buffalo
Vice-president James McDowell
Treasurer Alex McKensee

The Chefs' Club was organized by Miss Josephine Raub who served as adviser until her death late in 1948. It was formed at the request of a few Sophomore boys who were interested in the culinary art.

The club meets twice a month to enjoy dabbling in batter, dough, and other elements of the art under the direction of Miss Catherine A. Parent.

Junior Red Cross

President	Ethel Wooden
Vice-president	Lois Cosgrove
Secretary	Phyllis Fossetta
Treasurer	Esther Frezza

The Junior Red Cross Club is one of the most active clubs in Rahway High School. Most people think the club consists of girls only, but many boys help in the projects. This year the club made favors for veterans at Camp Kilmer and various hospitals, collected clothing for Navajo Indians, made ping pong paddles and plastic key rings for veterans, and worked at other charitable projects. The club with the aid of the club adviser, Miss Dorothy Dowden, helped in the annual Red Cross Drive and contributed to the local Senior Red Cross. The club collected sixty-three dollars for the drive this year. A Christmas party was held by the group, and a popcorn party and a trip added to the social events of the year.

Future Homemakers of America

President	Barbara Simon
Vice-president	Margaret Flake
Secretary	Pat O'Donnell
Treasurer	Faye Fortenbaugh

This club is a member of the national organization of F.H.A. clubs. Each month the girls have a new project of public service. In October the club sponsored the Bam-Belle Fashion Show. In November they co-sponsored the Thanksgiving Day assembly and helped to gather and arrange the Thanksgiving Day baskets which the students of our high school so willingly contributed for those less fortunate than we. Also in November, the F.H.A. sponsored the tuberculosis drive for funds. In January, this active group gathered clothes for the Navajo Indians. February brought a bit of relaxation for the club when they took time to enjoy a Valentine Day Party. The club's adviser is Miss Catherine Parent.

Latin Club

President Edward Purdy
 Vice-president Harriet Hanf
 Secretary Constance Goldsworthy
 Treasurer Barton Blum

The purpose of the Latin Club is to further the knowledge of students about ancient Rome. This year the club has been very active under the direction of the adviser, Edward Perrine. The group had many unusual meetings and good times. The members enjoyed playing bingo in Latin this year. They are really quite adept at solving puzzles and various games—all in Latin. One of the highlights of the year was a combined meeting of the French and Latin Clubs where the "brains" contested in their own languages. Another major activity of the club was the annual trip to New York.

Le Cercle Francais

President George Bellinger
 Vice-president Marie Bodnar
 Secretary Ruth Kochy
 Treasurer Joan Kochy
 Program Chairman, Beatrice McLean

Le Cercle Francais, under the direction of Miss Nancy Sinclair, enjoyed an active and successful year. Each meeting was unusual and interesting for the group. Candidates for membership are proposed on scholarship and the group votes for the new members. Of course, all are expected to speak only in French at meetings and most try hard to abide by the rule. Among their many activities the French Club matched wits with the Latin Club in their annual joint meeting. A very enjoyable assembly program was presented by the group displaying the language talents of the members. Social activities this year included a Christmas party and a trip to New York to see a French film and eat a French meal.

Deutscher Verein

President Barbara Geiling
 Vice-president Norma Ritter
 Secretary Betty Ann Schulze
 Treasurer Dennis Steele
 Adviser—Mrs. Shirley Vogel

This year has been an outstanding one for the Rahway High School Deutscher Verein. The members dressed in typical costumes of Bavaria, played games of that section at the enjoyable Herbstfest. The club activity span was greatly increased by many meetings with the active German Club in town. This club sent judges for the German Declamation Poetry Contest which was held in November and gave a Christmas party for the high school German group. In return our group presented a play and sang carols in German as part of the Christmas program given by the town German Club.

During the second semester the German Club attended a German language film in Irvington, visited the United Nations headquarters, and held a picnic.

Spanish Club

President Temple Ann Scafati
 Vice-president Joyce Whelan
 Secretary Joan Spencer
 Treasurer Dorothy Mohr

The Spanish Club furthers the students' interest in Hispanic civilization and culture. These interests are developed through group discussions, individual reports, music, skits, and games. All the students participate in the meetings enthusiastically and sportively.

This year, the club's activities consisted of club meetings and a social gathering which was held in the spring.

Only pupils who are studying or have studied Spanish are eligible to join this club which is under the faculty guidance of Mr. Carmine Bruni.

Personality Club

The principal function of the Personality Club is, as its name implies, to help its members develop their personalities, improve their appearances, and in general make the best of their capabilities. The membership consists of three girls elected from each Freshman Home Room. The club elected no officers this year in order that its entire organization might be helpful to each girl rather than to just a few.

The club's activities this year centered around its participation in Goerke's Charm Clinic, which extended over a period of seven weeks and was climaxed by a fashion show. Those members who attended shared with the club the experience and information they received at the Clinic.

Mrs. Catherine Engel was adviser of the club.

Art and Photography Club

President Robert Watterson
Vice-president Fred Headley
Secretary Pat Rowe
Treasurer Richard Mintell

The Art Club is comprised of students from all classes. The aim and purpose of the club is to promote a better understanding of art and culture. The club took a trip to New York Metropolitan Museum of Art to view the Van Gogh exhibit; this was a highlight of the year. Other interesting trips are planned for the spring.

Throughout the year, Mrs. Margaret Burke, the club adviser, presents motion pictures, color slides, and lectures about oil painting, water color, composition and picture construction.

The club, growing in popularity, has the potential qualities of becoming one of the school's novel organizations.

The Commercial Club

President Constance Gagnon
 Vice-president Betty Duff
 Secretary Florence Miskiewicz
 Treasurer Helen Lengyel
 Adviser—Mr. Richard M. Nash

The Commercial Club is made up of ambitious secretaries of the future who are trying to gain a greater knowledge of the functions of the business world.

The club members acquire money for their treasury by doing various types of commercial work for the local businessmen. They are getting excellent experience at the same time. The Commercial Club awards pins of gold, silver, and bronze to the students in the typing classes who type a certain number of words in ten minutes.

On the first Thursday of every month, the members meet to discuss the phases, characteristics, and requirements of clerical and commercial work. At these meetings the members often test each other's typing and shorthand ability.

The club members plan to hold a gala picnic at Union County Park this spring.

Banking Club

The Banking Club, under the direction of Richard M. Nash, has no regularly scheduled meetings. Mr. Nash calls the club together whenever it is necessary. The club is composed of the treasurers elected in each Home Room.

The Club acts as a collection agency in drives for the Red Cross, March of Dimes, et cetera. They also aid in the Parent-Teacher Association membership drive. This club is responsible for the sale of tickets at such events as football and basketball games. They handle all money matters for the Home Rooms.

John Marshall Law Club

President Tulla Covras
 Vice-president Elizabeth Seck
 Secretary Sherley Loveland
 Treasurer Alice Reiser

The John Marshall Law Club was organized for the purpose of furthering respect for law and development of good citizenship among the youth of our school. The club, composed of students taking the Commercial course, thoroughly combine their learnings with many social activities. As their main project, this year, an extensive trip was made through a county jail, county court, and a Federal Reserve bank. On the same day, March 3, 1950, the club, with its adviser, Mr. Irving Rapps, had dinner at the Taft Hotel and saw the Broadway play, "Miss Liberty."

Key Club

President James DiSanto
 Vice-president James Polacco
 Secretary Loren Zimmerman
 Treasurer Daniel Koch
 Adviser—Mr. John Dixon

The Key Club enjoyed a very successful year in true Key Club fashion. The club was organized in 1947 to serve the school and to prepare the young men of high school age to become useful members of the community. The completion of more than sixty projects this year speaks very well of the efforts of the Key Club. Among these projects were managing the football scoreboard and assisting local charity drives. Aside from attending the annual State Convention in Asbury Park, the club was represented at the International Key Club Convention in Columbus, Ohio. The club is under the guidance of the Rahway Kiwanis Club.

Blue Triangle Club

President	Dorothy Bacek
Vice-president	Myrna Kamins
Secretary	Kathleen Schaefer

Chaplain	Joanne Butler
Historian	Jean Hall

The Blue Tri, a chapter of the national Tri-Hi-Y organization, strives "to create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community high standards of Christian character."

The Club began the year with a candlelight induction ceremony of the new members. The club has engaged in many projects during the year; such as, selling football and basketball pins and Christmas cards and greeting cards. Several donations to various worthy drives and organizations were made by the Club.

Interesting meetings held during the year included the annual Christmas party, the Mother-Daughter meeting, service meetings, and meetings including a guest speaker.

Miss Thelma Frazee and Mrs. Arthur J. Schaefer are co-advisers.

Hi-Y

President	Jack Ciurczak
Vice-president	Frank Krause
Secretary	Gary Busse
Treasurer	Daniel Koch
Chaplain	James Campbell
Guard	Robert Buhl

John A. Kuhlman is the faculty adviser of the Rahway High School Hi-Y, a service club affiliated with the Y.M.C.A. The members aim to grow in body, mind and spirit, and to extend throughout the school and community the highest ideals of Christian character.

This year the club solicited for the March of Dimes in the Rahway Theatre. The drive was sparked by the spirited Hi-Y assembly, when the principal speaker was Mr. James Reilly, swimming coach at Rutgers University, who had been a victim of infantile paralysis.

The club collected and repaired toys at Christmas time and distributed them to Rahway's needy children. Their basketball team participated in the State Hi-Y league. They won half of their games, ending with a 50-50 record. The team was presented basketball suits by Mr. Percy Paulson of the P.A.L.

Theater Arts Club

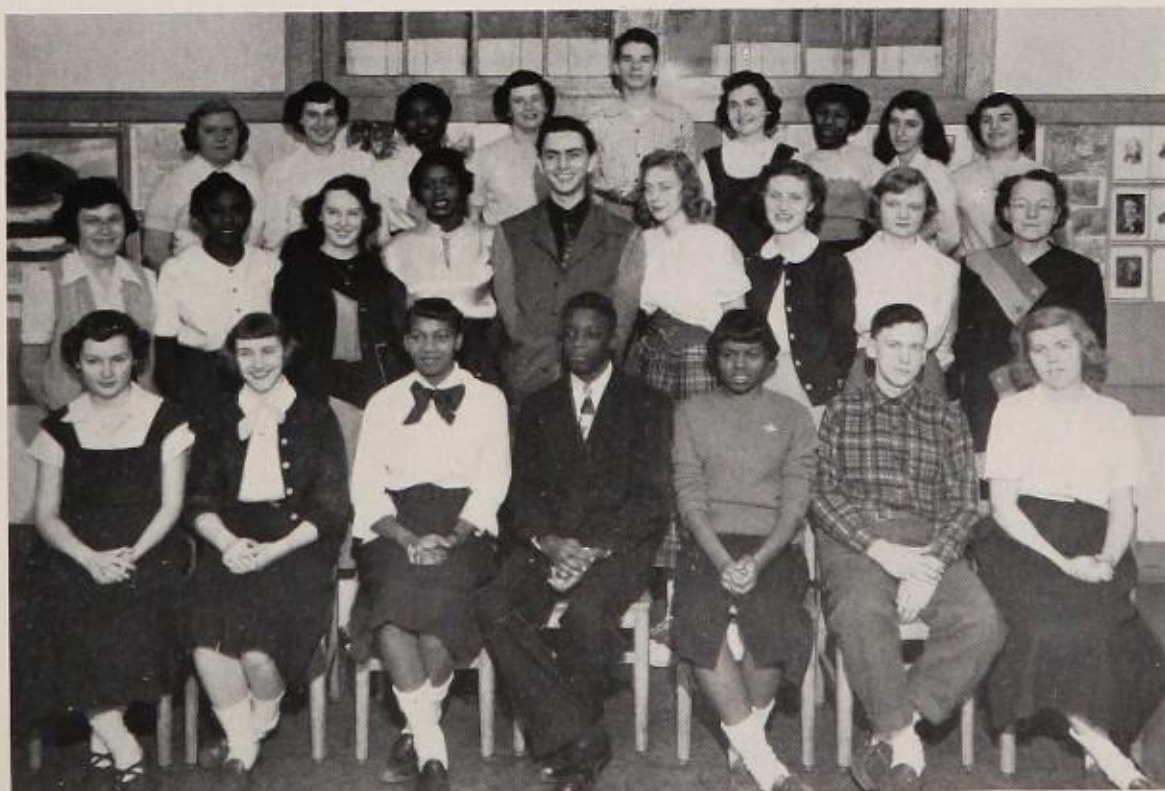

PresidentDorothy Mohr
 Vice-presidentPat O'Donnell
 Secretary-TreasurerMarilyn Smith

The Theater Arts Club, a minor club whose activities certainly aren't of minor importance, is comprised only of Sophomores who are truly interested in learning the ways of the theater. The club, which was organized in 1936 by its adviser, Miss M. Alberta Conlan, plans a trip to the Paper Mill Play House as its main project this year. During the monthly meetings such things as stage productions, both professional and amateur, screen dramatizations, and radio and television plays are discussed. The twenty-six members also find interesting the unseen workings of backstage activities. Costuming, make-up, lighting effects, and scenery are among these.

Literary Club

PresidentGeorge Bellinger
 Vice-presidentOttolie Uhl
 SecretaryMabel Fitch

The members of the Literary Club enjoyed an interesting and profitable year with the aid of Miss Anne O'Donnell, the adviser. At each meeting members of the group volunteered to report on a well-known novel, either a current selection or a classic. Among those reviewed this year were "Kenilworth" by Sir Walter Scott; "The Conquest of Space" by Willy Ley; "Father of the Bride" by Edward Streeter; "Nineteen Eighty - Four" by George Orwell; "Tess of the D'Urbervilles" by Thomas Hardy; and "To Have and To Hold" by Mary Johnson. Miss O'Donnell reported on Shakespeare's "The Taming of the Shrew," a play presented here last fall. Another unusual review was given on "Carmen," which the chorus members attended this year.

Wawawhack

Big Squaw Barbara Blanche Nelson
 Big Squaw Jeanne Brelle
 Sporty Brave Walter Hansen
 Sporty Brave Howard Kagan
 Medicine Man, Loy E. Owen

With a change in the name of the weekly student publication, from "Rahway High School Record" to the "Wawawhck" which is the original Indian name of Rahway, the entire layout of the paper was revolutionized. A new heading or format was designed which depicts all the various departments of our school and community. Although it contains the same amount of space as in previous years, the paper is printed on one large sheet instead of being folded.

The issues have school news, club and activity write-ups, honor rolls, chatty letters from Susie Q to Oswald, birthday congratulations, student comments on current questions, office releases, editorials, and sports. The staff, comprised of the Journalism class, does all the work except printing required to put out a weekly paper: writing, editing, proof-reading, and layout.

Library Council

President Gertrude Van Note
 Vice-president Theresa Vincze
 Secretary Joan Van Pelt
 Treasurer Betty Duff

Acquainting its members with the routine of library work, and affording them a useful knowledge and appreciation of books, the Library Council is among the more active and serviceable clubs in Rahway High School. This year the Council is to be congratulated for its success in maintaining the high school library in the absence of the adviser and Librarian, Miss Anne Vail. Mrs. Catherine Fowler, who is acting as librarian while Miss Vail is recovering from a fall, has aided the Council in their many activities.

Among these activities were the sponsoring of an amateur hour in assembly, a trip to New York in the spring, and the annual presentation of a new book to the library.

Senior Play

The night of November 18, 1949 will long be remembered by the Senior Class, especially by the twelve who appeared in the cast. "Green Stockings" is the play; Mrs. Aszman, the coach; and the Faraday home, the setting. The cast included: Kathleen Schaefer, Edward Purdy, Robert Buhl, Marie Bodnar, Barbara Simon, Donald Winter, Helen Dudinec, Betty Schulze, Walter Hansen, Howard Kagan, David Feinberg, and Val Meinzer.

The plot deals with the custom whereby an elder sister is compelled to wear green stockings at the wedding of a younger sister, provided she herself is unmarried. Having worn the stockings twice, Celia Faraday rebels when the time approaches for her to wear them a third time. She therefore invents a sweetheart, Smith; and says that after she had become engaged, he was obliged to sail for the war in South Africa. This results in a series of amusing situations that terminate happily for all.

Junior Play

The Junior Play, coached by Mrs. Jane B. Aszman, was presented on Friday night, March 22. "Tommy" is the name of the comedy. The plot revolves around Tommy's and Marie's romance. Tommy had proved himself so virtuous that Marie gradually lost her interest. At the advice of an uncle, Tommy practically succeeds in getting himself thrown out of the house, repudiating his word of honor, and generally employing bad manners. Tommy finally clears himself of the insinuations against his character, and the girl is brought to happiness.

The eight lucky Juniors chosen for the cast were Marie Thurber, Deborah Millman; Tommy, Radley Squier; Bernard, Charles Brown; Mrs. Thurber, Lin Giroud; Mr. Thurber, Carl Sagan; Uncle Dave, Bob Carron; Mrs. Wilson, Sylvia Herer; and Judge Thurber, James Campbell.

Freshman Dramatic Club

President Richard Mundrane
 Vice-president Katherine Gray
 Secretary Dorothy Bilarczyk
 Treasurer Gail Hooton

This year the underclassmen clamored to have a dramatic group of their own. The purpose of the club is to prepare Freshman for better plays when they reach their Junior and Senior classes. Under the capable direction of Miss Ruth Morris, the club members have been successful in their initial attempt in dramatics. This year their major activity was the presentation of a comedy, "Grand Cham's Diamond."

Debating Club

President Walter Hansen
 Vice-president Donald Winter
 Secretary Barbara Jean Nelson
 Treasurer Howard Kagan
 Adviser—Mr. Edward Perrine

The most outstanding accomplishment of the Debating Club this year was the team's triumph over Regional High School in a debate concerning the Electoral College. The members of the interscholastic team were Donald Winter, Howard Kagan, Walter Hansen, and David Feinberg. The entire club participated actively in the Union County Student Forum at Cranford, representing Rahway High School in excellent fashion. Although the club was not able to schedule as many debates as was planned, the topics discussed were enjoyed by non-members and the faculty, as well as the members of the club.

The American Legion Oratorical Contest

The American Legion Post No. 5 sponsors each year an oratorical contest in which Juniors and Seniors may participate. This year's contestants were Patricia Acken, Sylvia Herer, Carl Sagan, George Bellinger, Jack Ciurczak, David Feinberg. George Bellinger was selected as the winner and was delegated to represent Rahway High at the Regional County Finals. Mr. David Bender, head of the History Department is in charge of this yearly contest.

WAAT RADIO FORUM

Rahway High School's representative in the Kresge Newark Junior Town Meeting of the Air this year was Donald Winter. Each week four students of various high schools throughout the state meet in the WAAT Radio Studio to discuss topics of current national interest. Each week a winner is selected to appear in the Semi-finals later in the year. The top winner of the entire series of discussions is awarded a handsome scholarship to any college of his choosing. This year Donald Winter was declared the winner of the panel discussion on February 15. The topic of debate was "Can we solve the German situation now?" Donald was awarded a Waterman's pen and pencil set and later appeared in the Semi-finals on April 3.

D.A.R. PILGRIMAGE

Rahway High School was again represented at the Pilgrimage of the Daughters of the American Revolution in Trenton this year. By a vote of the Senior girls and the faculty, Joan Kochy was chosen delegate and Dorothy Bacek, alternate. Joan attended the conference on March 16 with members of the Rebecca Cornell Chapter, the sponsoring organization. At the conference, in the State House, girls representing high schools throughout New Jersey were presented with good citizenship pins, and a State Pilgrim was named. The rest of the day's program included a tour of the State House and nearby historic buildings, and luncheon in one of Trenton's large hotels.

AMERICAN EDUCATION WEEK

This year's American Education Week took place from November 7 through November 11. As usual, the main event was the National Education Week Assembly which is sponsored by the Rahway High School P.T.A. and the National Honor Society.

Walter Hansen, president of the National Honor Society, acted as chairman and Betty Schulze had charge of the opening exercises. "Origin and Objects of American Education Week" was discussed by Edward Purdy, followed by "Educational Opportunity," Barbara B. Nelson; "Responsible Citizenship," Dot Bacek; "Our Freedom and Security," Joan Kochy; and "Next Decade in Education," Daniel Koch.

The essay and poster awards, donated by the Student Council, were also presented. Joan Kochy, Carl Sagan, Fred Durand, and Allan Weygend were the essay winners, while Val Meinzer, Lowell Stahl, and James Johnson were awarded poster awards.

Another feature of interest that was added to American Education Week this year was a science display in the library.

CAREER DAY

The fifth Annual Career Day was held on October 26, 1949 under the sponsorship of the Rahway Kiwanis Club with the assistance of the faculty, Student Council and the Key Club. Career Day provides us with an opportunity to meet and talk to a number of people who are leaders in their profession or occupation. The choice of a vocation is one of the most important decisions in the life of any young person. These conferences were arranged to bring to us practical guidance information concerning the many occupations and professions in which we are interested. The vocations discussed were selected on the basis of a survey made throughout the school several weeks before the conference. About twenty-five informal lectures were presented and each student could attend two of these.

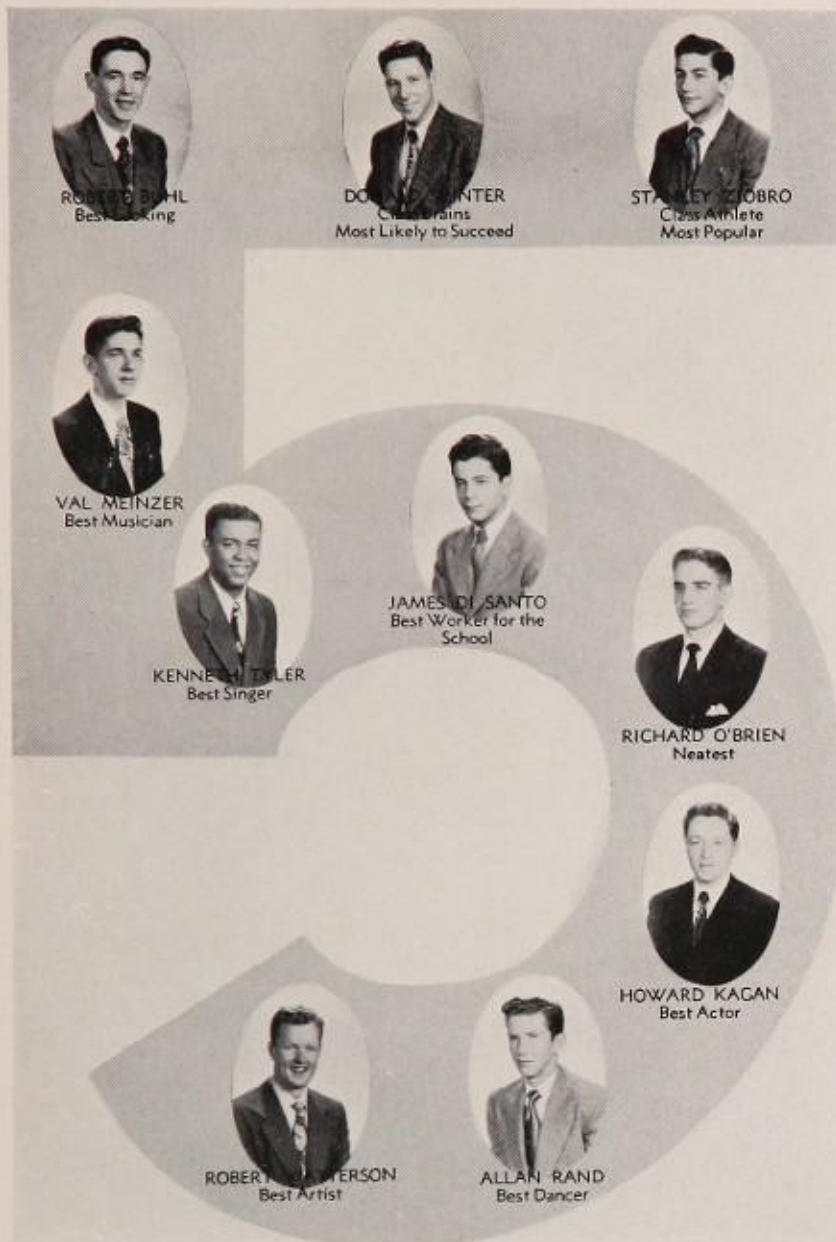

TRADE AND INDUSTRY COURSE

The Trade and Industry Course was originated in 1928 by Mr. Arthur Perry and a group of industrial leaders in Rahway. Instituted as a result of a need for vocational training, the T & I course requires that students attend school and work in industry in alternating weeks. The two most outstanding group activities of the class were the sponsorship of the T & I movie, "The Man in the Iron Mask," and T & I picnic at the end of the school term. For the picnic every student was obliged to invite his employer from the factory in which he worked. The T & I plan, as a whole, yields not only a close student-employer relationship, but also provides an intimate acquaintance with industry.

SENIOR STANZAS

One day I saw a trout so big,
The kind I like to see;
I took my line and cast it in,
Then in my creel was he.

A lot of things are said in fun
By people every day;
The people often do not think
What harmful things they say.

[We often wish we were someone
Other than who we are.
Just think if, you were that someone,
Who then would be your star?

[We always leave our school in June
With thoughts of fond delight.
The summer months drag on and on;
It's school again; O Spite!

I wish I were a little bird
Flying in the air.
I'd fly South in the wintertime
And not pay any fare.

In history we read a lot
About things past and done;
But what has always puzzled me,
Is "Why not have some fun?"

I like to work at chemistry
All in the class agree.
Poor Mr. S. tries awfully hard,
But it does not like me.

I've often wondered why it is
That when I take a test,
The things which I did study less
I should have studied best.

When homework gets too much to bear,
One thing makes me feel gay
I close my eyes and dream about
My graduation day.

It seems that everyone of us
Is bent on bookish lore.
Perhaps we all should realize
The way we live means more.

I can't think of a thing to write,
Although I rack my brain.
To tell the truth, I really think
This ballad stuff's a pain.

You know I think I've strained my eyes
From trig and long division.
It's strange they never hurt too much
To look at television.

The phones are clicking on and off,
The children shout "Hooray!"
Snow clogs the roads and stops the cars;
There is no school today.

There once was a young girl from Burton
Of her true love she felt very certain;
But she didn't know
Her boy friend named Joe
With other young girls was a flirtin'!

There was a young man known as Joe,
Who wanted to be not so so;
But who loved baseball true
And soon led Casey's crew
To a flag, 'gainst a murderous foe.

There once was a fellow named Lear,
A most likeable chap, so I hear.
He butchered his wife
With his favorite knife;
Then said, "How I'll miss you, my dear."

A leopard was feeling so gay,
He wanted to go out to play.
The pit was quite deep,
But out he did leap
And frolicked the rest of the day.

There was a young lady from Thiel
Who rode in an automobile.
There was a big crash,
As a train she did bash;
Now the lady from Thiel isn't real.

THE RED and BLACK

Our glorious colors, red and black,
Float proudly to the sky;
We'll sing to thee, dear Alma Mater,
Of love that shall never die;
We'll strive for thy glory eternal,
Keep thy stainless banner high,
Inspiring each son and each daughter,
The noblest aims to try.
All thy fame and thy spirit, thy might are ours,
As the swift years hurry by.

CLASS SONG

Commencement time is here.
Soon we shall be departing,
Leaving friendships we hold dear;
Our memories ne'er parting.

Though we now must leave,
Our hearts will ever grieve.
All the joys of Rahway High
Shall ever in memory lie.
